Women's Labor Lengue.

The regular meeting of the Women's Industrial league was held last night, with a good attendance. Mrs. Smith, who has been Norfolk and vicinity for the past two weeks, reported that considerable success was the result of her labors in attempting to or-gauize a branch of the league, as one had been put under way, with thirty-five members, many of whom were ladies of high social standing. She stated that she would make a fuller report at the next meeting, when some of the members of the Norfolk branch will be present and make addresses. Mrs. Catherine Osgood offered a resolution thanking the Federation of Labor for their kind in-dersement of Mrs. Smith and the league. Reports from the several branches of the league, showing them to be in good condition, were read, and the meeting adjourned.
